

BASIC CONSTABLE TRAINING

Description

The Basic Constable Training Program is designed to provide candidates with sound knowledge of the laws and procedures that uniform personnel are required to apply in the performance of their duties as front line officers. Essential skills and attitudes are developed through classroom discussions, case studies and simulation exercises. While the OPC has always incorporated practical exercises in the basic constable curriculum, the shift toward a higher percentage of practical training started in earnest in 1997.